Re: Choice of ADR Procedure (Alternative Dispute Resolution Program - Pretrial)
Lang v. Verizon Communications Inc., 2:16-cv-00732-PSG-FFM

According to civil procedure of the Central District of California, the parties of the case are asked to advise a choice of ADR (Alternative Dispute Resolution) before an actual trial (litigation) takes place. The parties are given a choice of three ADR procedures, whichever they think is best suited to their case. The Plaintiff chooses ADR Procedure No. 2 (Mediation Panel).

Regarding practical scheduling for the mediation, at present the Plaintiff is normally occupied with his job duties along with the activity of purchasing real estate property (buying a house). A time frame within the upcoming month would be reasonable for the Plaintiff.
